TALES OF HOLIDAYS PAST

In honor of the holiday season, I have decided to turn the editorial spoon over to our illustrious BOOM! Kids Editor so that they might share their most treasured holiday memories with you. (And, from this blog, I'll be a bedraggled editor a little breathing room this month by skipping an editorial!)

Mark Waid, Editor In Chief and Writer, Incredibles

My most treasured holiday memory was my fourth Christmas when I received a Batman Utility Belt from Santa. You can be sure the streets of Hueytown, Alabama were free of crime with me on the case.

Ian Brill, Editor

The Looney Tunes Golden Collection DVD. I love the anarchic spirit of Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck.

Nathan Watson, Artist, Toy Story

Being a December-born individual, Christmas was always a tricky time. To get the batteries for my birthday with the promise of just wait until Christmas when you get to see what they go in. Then on Christmas Day, get the wait and see gift, open it up, and the batteries are the wrong size!

Patrick Storck, Writer, Muppet King Arthur

All the stove burners were in use making breakfast Christmas morning, so mom thought to bake me bacon. About halfway through the meal dad asked why we didn't make bacon. A moment later all the windows were open, the fans were on, and a flaming pan of bacon was being thrown out the back door into the snow.

Deron Bennett, Letterer

As a kid, Christmas was all about "the list" for me. As soon as the holidays approached and the catalog started rolling in, my brother and I would get to circling every item on every page just to see Santa was really generous. I never could turn get the hang of narrowing things down. I think I may have even asked for an engagement ring from JC Penney once...or twice.

Bryce Carlson, Editor

It was the mild Southern California winter of 1987 when I was but a small boy with big dreams of grandiose gifts. After all, I was a GOOD little man. I got a Micro Machine Death Star.

Paul Benjamin, Writer, Muppet King Arthur and Monsters, Inc.

I remember a very special Hanukkah gift from my dad just before the winter formal my senior year of high school. Growing up, my non-Jewish friends were often jealous that I got eight gifts over the eight days of Hanukkah. Here's why you should never envy that.

Day 1: Tuxedo pants

Day 2: Cumberbund

Day 3: Bow tie

Day 4: One cufflink

Amy Mebberson, Artist, Muppet Peter Pan and Monsters, Inc.

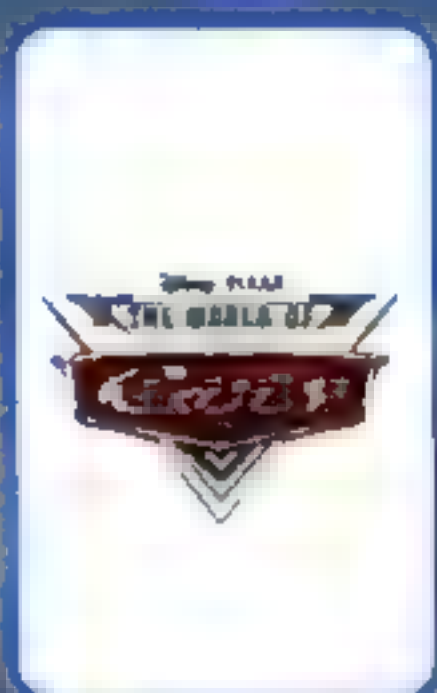

My best Christmas present ever was the dollhouse hand-built by my grandfather in 1984 and the Amiga 500 system he got in 1990. The dollhouse remains a family treasure, but I've had to rescue the poor Amiga from the rubbish a couple of times. No respect for the classics, man!

Grace Randolph, Writer, Muppet Peter Pan

When I was around ten years old, my sister and I had bunk beds and I was on the top. Well, we'd been up for awhile that Christmas morning but had to wait until a "reasonable time" to wake up our parents. When we agreed the hour had come, my sister bolted out of the room while I was still working my way down from the top bunk! It's her pure excitement, and my excitement, really up to her, that is my fondest Christmas memory.

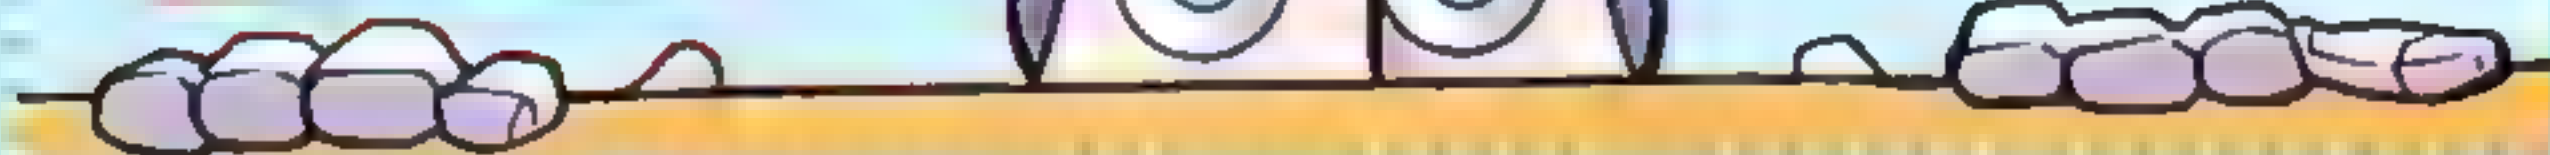

And, as for my greatest Christmas memory? Three words: Cobra, Dragon Drome. Thank you, Grandma! Happy holidays, everyone!

TOY STORY

PREVIOUSLY, IN TOY STORY #0...

Andy's grandmother sends him a second Buzz Lightyear figure, resulting in all out war as Andy's Buzz finds himself face-to-face with a new, shinier version of himself! When Andy and his mother decide to exchange the new Buzz at the store a scuffle ensues, and they return from the store with a new Space Ranger, Booster. No toy in Andy's room is sure which Buzz Lightyear was returned... until Woody notices that the Buzz figure that came back from the toy store is missing Andy's signature on his foot...
